JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has federal subject matter jurisdiction over the claims asserted in this Action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a), as well as pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1121 as an action arising out of violations of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051 et seq. and the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq.; pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1338(b) as an action arising out of claims for false designation of origin and unfair competition and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332, as there is diversity between the parties and the matter in controversy exceeds, exclusive of interests and costs, the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1367(a), as the claims asserted thereunder are so closely related to the federal claims brought in this Action as to form part of the same case or controversy.

2. Personal jurisdiction exists over Defendants in this judicial district pursuant to N.Y.C.P.L.R. § 302(a)(1) and N.Y.C.P.L.R. § 302(a)(3), or in the alternative, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k), because, upon information and belief, Defendants regularly conduct, transact and/or solicit business in New York and in this judicial district, and/or derive substantial revenue from their business transactions in New York and in this judicial district and/or otherwise avail themselves of the privileges and protections of the laws of the State of New York such that this Court's assertion of jurisdiction over Defendants does not offend traditional notions of fair play and due process, and/or Defendants' illegal counterfeiting and infringing actions caused injury to Plaintiff in New York and in this judicial district such that Defendants should reasonably expect such actions to have consequences in New York and in this judicial district, for example:

- a. Upon information and belief, Defendants were and/or are systematically directing and/or targeting their business activities at consumers in the U.S., including New York, through accounts with online marketplace platforms such as eBay (as defined infra) as well as any and all as yet undiscovered accounts with additional online marketplace platforms held by or associated with Defendants, their respective officers, employees, agents, servants and all persons in active concert or participation with anyof them (“User Accounts”), through which consumers in the U.S., including New York, can view one or more of Defendants’ Merchant Storefronts (as defined infra) that each Defendant operates, uses to communicate with Defendants regarding their listings for Counterfeit Products (as defined infra) and to place orders for, receive invoices for and purchase Counterfeit Products for delivery in the U.S., including New York, as a means for establishing regular business with the U.S., including New York.

- b. Upon information and belief, Defendants are sophisticated sellers, each operating one or more commercial businesses using their respective User Accounts through which Defendants, their respective officers, employees, agents, servants and all persons in active concert of participation with any of them, operate storefronts to manufacture, import, export, advertise, market, promote, distribute, offer for sale and/or otherwise deal in products, including the Counterfeit Products, which are held by or associated with Defendants, their respective officers, employees, agents, servants and all persons in active concert or participation with any of them (“Merchant Storefront(s)”) in wholesale quantities at significantly below-market prices to consumers worldwide, including to those in the U.S., and specifically New York.

3. Venue is proper, inter alia, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because, upon information and belief, Defendants conduct, transact and/or solicit business in this judicial district.

THE PARTIES

4. Plaintiff Mattel, Inc. is a California corporation, having a principal place of business at 333 Continental Boulevard, TWR 15-1, El Segundo, CA 90245.
5. GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

Plaintiff and Its Well-Known Barbie Products

6. Plaintiff, through its family of companies, is a leading designer, developer, marketer, manufacturer and distributor of well-known children's toys and games ("Mattel Products") under its iconic brands, including, but not limited to: Barbie, Thomas & Friends, Hot Wheels, American Girl and Fisher-Price ("Mattel Brands").
7. Plaintiff sells its Mattel Products worldwide through major retailers, quality toy stores and online marketplaces.

8. One of Plaintiff's most popular and successful brands is Barbie, an iconic and world-renowned fashion doll ("Barbie").

9. Barbie was created in the late 1950's by Ruth Handler after recognizing that her daughter Barbara had limited choices of toys to play with, unlike her son Ken. For example, Ken had toys with which he could imagine himself as a firefighter, an astronaut, a cowboy and a doctor, among other things. Girls, on the other hand, were mostly playing with bits of cardboard in the form of paper dolls used to express fashion play, or baby dolls with which they could imagine themselves as a mother or caregiver. There was no such thing as a three-dimensional fashion doll. Ruth came to realize that there was a market for such a doll with which girls could play with fashion and dream of growing up.

10. Barbie was first introduced at the American International Toy Fair in New York on March 9, 1959, a date which has since become recognized by Mattel as being Barbie's birthday.¹

11. However, at the Toy Fair that year, Barbie was not a hit. The toy buyers, who at the time were mostly men, generally did not know what to make of a fashion doll in the form of an adult woman for children. Still, Ruth understood that when the doll got into girls' hands, they would see the doll as a platform for imaginative play. Ultimately, when girls saw the first commercial for Barbie, orders for the doll went through the roof, to the point where Mattel could not manufacture enough dolls to keep up with the demand.

12. The Barbie doll soon became famous around the world, dramatically impacting the way that children interacted with dolls and the Barbie brand has since expanded to a vast range of commercial products, including, but not limited to, playhouses, toy cars, books, movies, games, puzzles and clothing ("Barbie Products").

13. During the first year of production, approximately 300,000 original Barbie dolls were sold. To date, more than one billion Barbie brand dolls alone have been sold across 150 different countries, as well as additional sales of non-toy Barbie Products in over 45 categories. Total annual sales under the Barbie brand are more than a billion dollars, with much of that revenue stemming from sales of Barbie Products other than toys.

14. The impact of the Barbie brand has reached heights and received honors rarely seen in the toy world. For example, Barbie has appeared in films, including the Toy Story franchise,² has had a section of Times Square briefly renamed “Barbie Boulevard” in 1974, has been depicted in a painting by the artist Andy Warhol,³ has landed the cover of *Time Magazine*⁴ and is part of the Smithsonian Institution’s collection in the National Museum of American History.⁵

15. While Plaintiff has gained significant common law trademark and other rights in its Barbie Products, through use, advertising, and promotion, Plaintiff has also protected these valuable rights by filing for and obtaining federal trademark registrations.

16. For example, Plaintiff is the owner of a number of US Trademark Registrations for BARBIE or BARBIE formative marks, including but not limited to: U.S. Trademark Reg. No. 689,055 for “BARBIE” for a variety of goods in Class 22, U.S. Trademark Reg. No. 741,208 for “BARBIE” for a variety of goods in Class 22, U.S. Trademark Reg. 17. The Barbie Marks are currently in use in commerce in connection with Barbie Products. The Barbie Marks were first used in commerce on or before the dates of first use as reflected in the registration certificates attached hereto as Exhibit A. All of the Barbie Marks are valid and subsisting and many are incontestable.

18. In addition, Plaintiff is also the owner of both registered and unregistered copyrights in and related to the Barbie Products.

19. For example, Plaintiff is the owner of U.S. Copyright Registrations for Barbie brand designs and imagery, including but not limited to: U.S. Copyright Reg. No. VA 945-179, covering the Barbie head sculpture known as CEO Barbie: no. 98-20548, U.S. Copyright Reg. No. VA 1-

No. VA 2-082-446, covering the Barbie 2018 Consumer Products Guide (collectively, the “Barbie Works”). True and correct copies of the U.S. Copyright registration certificates for the Barbie Works are attached hereto as Exhibit B and incorporated herein by reference.

20. Plaintiff has spent substantial time, money and effort in building up and developing consumer recognition, awareness and goodwill in its Barbie Products, Barbie Marks and Barbie Works.

21. The success of the Barbie brand is due in part to Plaintiff’s marketing and promotional efforts. These efforts include advertising and promotion through television, Plaintiff’s website, retailer websites, print and internet-based advertising and placement of the Barbie Products at dozens of authorized major retail outlets, both domestically and abroad, including New York.

22. The success of the Barbie brand is also due to its use of high quality designs, materials and processes in making Barbie Products

23. Additionally, Plaintiff owes a substantial amount of the success of the Barbie Products to its consumers and word-of-mouth buzz that its consumers have generated, including through events featuring Barbie Products, such as events at the Musée des Arts Décoratifs in Paris, France⁶ and at Mudec's Museo delle Culture in Milan, Italy,⁷ as well as meetups for fans.

24. The Barbie brand's popularity extends even into the internet and social media, as, for example, the Barbie brand Instagram account, @barbiestyle, currently has over 1.9 million followers.⁸ Additionally, the Barbie channel on YouTube has over 9 billion views,⁹ Barbie brand's collective social media followers numbers 17 million and Barbie is ranked as the number one toy brand in social conversation. Further, as of 2017, Barbie Apps have boasted 57 million lifetime downloads, an average of 150,000 daily users.

25. While the largest market for Barbie dolls is girls ages 3 to 11, there is also a large market of adult collectors. For example, the Barbie National Convention in the U.S. began in New York City in 1980 and Mattel estimates that there are eight million active collectors of Barbie dolls, primarily adults.

26. Plaintiff's efforts, the quality of Plaintiff's Barbie Products, and the word-of-mouth buzz generated by its consumers have made the Barbie Marks, Barbie Works and Barbie Products prominently placed in the minds of the public. The Barbie brand has achieved near universal recognition among the general consuming public in the U.S., and members of the public and retailers have become familiar with Plaintiff's Barbie Marks, Barbie Works and Barbie Products, and have come to associate them exclusively with Plaintiff.

27. As recently as 2010, research conducted by Mattel among more than 1,800 participants showed that awareness of the Barbie brand among U.S. girls ages 5 – 10 is as high as 98% and 99% among their mothers. Mattel has acquired a valuable reputation and goodwill among the public as a result of such association.

28. In addition, in 1991 the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit recognized that Barbie is the best-selling toy doll in the world,¹⁰ and in 1998, now-Justice Sonia Sotomayor wrote that “by any measure – the world-known BARBIE is a ‘famous’ trademark under the Federal Anti-Dilution Act.”¹¹

29. Plaintiff has gone to great lengths to protect its interests to the Barbie Products, Barbie Marks and Barbie Works. No one other than Plaintiff and its authorized licensees and distributors is authorized to manufacture, import, export, advertise, offer for sale, or sell any goods utilizing the Barbie Marks or Barbie Works without the express permission of Plaintiff.

eBay and Defendants' User Accounts

30. eBay.com is an online marketplace and e-commerce platform that allows manufacturers and other third-party merchants, like Defendants, to advertise, distribute, offer for sale and/or sell in what it characterizes as either auction-style or fixed-price formats and ship their retail products originating from China,¹² among other locations, directly to consumers worldwide and specifically those residing in the U.S., including New York (hereinafter, “eBay”).

31. A significant number of third-party merchants that have User Accounts with and operate Merchant Storefronts on eBay, like Defendants, are located in China.¹³ Of the top third-party merchants selling on eBay, 85% are based in China or Hong Kong.¹⁴ Currently, eBay claims that it has a base of 25 million third-party merchants and 168 million active buyers.¹⁵ Over the past 20 years, eBay has become one of the most popular e-commerce platforms in the world, currently placing it as the sixth most popular website in the U.S.¹⁶ At any given time, eBay contains some 100 million listings and more than 6 million new listings are posted on it daily.¹⁷

32. eBay aggressively uses the internet, including Facebook, Tumblr, Twitter and Instagram, to market itself and the products offered for sale and/or sold by its third-party merchant users to potential consumers, particularly those in the U.S.¹⁸ For example, 10% of the traffic eBay sends from its Facebook page to eBay.com converts into bids and/or purchases.

33. As recently addressed in news reports¹⁹ and as reflected in the federal lawsuits filed against third-party merchants offering for sale and selling infringing and/or counterfeit products on eBay,²⁰ an astronomical number of counterfeit and infringing products are offered for sale and sold on eBay at a rampant rate.²¹ For example, a consumer watchdog organization found that eBay²² accounts

34. Defendants are individuals and/or businesses, who, upon information and belief, are located in China but conduct business in the U.S. and other countries by means of their User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts on eBay as well as potential yet undiscovered additional online marketplace platforms.

35. Through their Merchant Storefronts, Defendants offer for sale and/or sell consumer products, including Counterfeit Products, and target and ship such products to customers located in the U.S., including New York, and throughout the world.

36. Defendants' Merchant Storefronts share unique identifiers, such as design elements along with similarities in price, description of the goods offered and of the Counterfeit Products themselves offered for sale.

37. Defendants are in constant communication with each other and regularly participate in online chatroom discussions involving illegal counterfeiting activities, pending litigation and potential new lawsuits.

individuals and entities who wish to capitalize on the goodwill, reputation and fame that Plaintiff has amassed in its Barbie Products, Barbie Marks and the works embodied in the Barbie Works and Plaintiff investigates and enforces against such activities..

39. As part of these efforts, Plaintiff retained New Alchemy Limited (“NAL”), a company that provides trademark infringement research services, to investigate and research manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers and/or other merchants offering for sale and/or selling Counterfeit Products on eBay.

40. Through NAL’s investigative and enforcement efforts, Plaintiff learned of Defendants’ actions which vary and include, but are not limited to: manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or selling products bearing or used in connection with the Barbie Marks and/or Barbie Works, and/or products in packaging and/or containing labels bearing the Barbie Marks and/or Barbie Works, and/or bearing or used in connection with marks and/or artwork that are confusingly or substantially similar to the Barbie Marks and/or Barbie Works and/or products that are identical or confusingly or substantially similar to the Barbie Products (collectively referred to as, “Infringing Product(s)” or “Counterfeit Product(s)”) to U.S. consumers, including those located in the state of New York, through Defendants’ User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts. Printouts of listings for Counterfeit Products from Defendants’ User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts are included in Exhibit C attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

41. Defendants are not, and have never been, authorized by Plaintiff or any of its authorized agents, authorized licensees or authorized distributors to copy, manufacture, import, export, advertise, distribute, offer for sale or sell the Barbie Products or to use the Barbie Marks and Barbie Works, or any marks or artwork that are confusingly or substantially similar to the Barbie Marks or

Barbie Works.

42. Defendants' Counterfeit Products are nearly indistinguishable from Plaintiff's Barbie Products, only with minor variations that no ordinary consumer would recognize.

43. During its investigation, NAL identified Defendants as offering for sale and/or selling Counterfeit Products and specified a shipping address located in New York ("the New York Address") and verified that each Defendant provides shipping to the New York Address. Printouts of the checkout pages for the Counterfeit Products and pages from Defendants' Merchant Storefronts reflecting that the Defendants ship the Counterfeit Products to the New York Address are included in Exhibit C attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

44. NAL confirmed that each Defendant was and/or is still currently offering for sale and/or selling Counterfeit Products through their respective Merchant Storefronts, accepting payment for such Counterfeit Products in U.S. Dollars through eBay's own payment processing services ("eBay Payment System"), or through accounts with the payment processing agency PayPal, Inc. ("PayPal"), and that each Defendant provides shipping and/or has actually shipped Counterfeit Products to the U.S., including to customers located in New York. NAL's findings are supported by Defendants' listings for Counterfeit Products and/or the checkout pages for the Counterfeit Products, which are included in Exhibit C attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

45. For example, below on the left is an image of one of Plaintiff's Barbie Products, which typically retails for $10.99. Further, the alexstore888 Counterfeit Product is virtually identical to one of Plaintiff’s Barbie Products and features and/or incorporates one or more of the Barbie Works and Barbie Marks. There is no question that the 276470 Counterfeit Product is designed to confuse and mislead consumers into believing that they are purchasing one of Plaintiff’s Barbie Products or that the alexstore888 Counterfeit Product is otherwise approved by or sourced from Plaintiff, thereby trading off of the goodwill and reputation of Plaintiff by engaging in the unauthorized use of the Barbie Works and Barbie Marks:

47. As another example, below on the left is an image of one of Plaintiff's Barbie Products, which typically retails for $20.00. Depicted further below is a listing for Defendant ilante's Counterfeit Product ("ilante Infringing Listing" and "ilante Counterfeit Product," respectively). 48. By these dealings in Counterfeit Products (including, without limitation, copying, manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or selling Counterfeit Products), Defendants violated Plaintiff's exclusive rights in the Barbie Marks and Barbie Works, and have used marks, images and artwork that are confusingly and/or substantially similar to, identical to and/or constitute counterfeiting and/or infringement of the Barbie Marks and Barbie Works in order to confuse consumers into believing that such Counterfeit Products are Barbie Products and aid in the promotion and sales of their Counterfeit Products. Defendants' conduct began long after Plaintiff's adoption and use of the Barbie Marks and Barbie Works, after Plaintiff obtained the federal registrations in the Barbie Marks and Barbie Works, as alleged above, and after Plaintiff's Barbie Products, Barbie Marks and Barbie Works became well-known to the purchasing public.

49. Prior to and contemporaneous with their counterfeiting and infringing actions alleged herein, Defendants had knowledge of Plaintiff's ownership of the Barbie Marks and Barbie Works, of the fame and incalculable goodwill associated therewith and of the popularity and success of the Barbie Products, and in bad faith adopted the Barbie Marks and Barbie Works.

50. Defendants have been engaging in the illegal counterfeiting and infringing actions, as alleged herein, knowingly and intentionally, or with reckless disregard or willful blindness to Plaintiff's rights, or in bad faith, for the purpose of trading on the goodwill and reputation of Plaintiff, the Barbie Marks, Barbie Works and Barbie Products.

51. Defendants' dealings in Counterfeit Products, as alleged herein, has caused, and will continue to cause confusion, mistake, economic loss, and has, and will continue to deceive consumers, the public and the trade with respect to the source or origin of Defendants' Counterfeit Products, thereby causing consumers to erroneously believe that such Counterfeit Products are licensed by or otherwise associated with Plaintiff, thereby damaging Plaintiff.

52. By engaging in these actions, Defendants have, jointly and severally, among other things, willfully and in bad faith committed the following, all of which have and will continue to cause irreparable harm to Plaintiff: infringed and counterfeited the Barbie Marks, infringed the Barbie Works, committed unfair competition and unfairly and unjustly profited from such activities at Plaintiff's expense.

53. Unless enjoined, Defendants will continue to cause irreparable harm to Plaintiff.

60. Defendants' unauthorized use of the Barbie Marks on or in connection with the Counterfeit Products was done with notice and full knowledge that such use was not authorized or licensed by Plaintiff or its authorized agents and with deliberate intent to unfairly benefit from the incalculable goodwill inherent in the Barbie Marks.

67. Defendants were, at the time they engaged in their actions as alleged herein, actually aware that Plaintiff is the owner of the federal trademark registrations for the Barbie Marks.

68. Defendants did not seek and thus inherently failed to obtain consent or authorization from Plaintiff, as the registered trademark owner of the Barbie Marks, to deal in and commercially manufacture, import, export, advertise, market, promote, distribute, display, retail, offer for sale and/or sell Barbie Products and/or related products bearing the Barbie Marks into the stream of commerce.

69. Defendants knowingly and intentionally manufactured, imported, exported, advertised, marketed, promoted, distributed, displayed, offered for sale and/or sold Counterfeit Products, bearing and/or utilizing marks that are reproductions, counterfeits, copies and/or colorable imitations of the Barbie Marks and/or which are identical or confusingly similar to the Barbie Marks.

70. Defendants knowingly and intentionally reproduced, copied and colorably imitated the Barbie Marks and applied such reproductions, copies or colorable imitations to packaging, wrappers, receptacles, online listings and/or advertisements used in commerce upon, or in connection with the manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or sale of Defendants' Counterfeit Products.

71. Defendants were, at the time they engaged in their illegal and infringing actions as alleged herein, actually aware that Plaintiff is the owner of all rights in and to the Barbie Marks.

72. Defendants' egregious and intentional use of the Barbie Marks in commerce on or in connection with Defendants' Counterfeit Products has caused, and is likely to continue to cause, actual confusion and mistake, and has deceived, and is likely to continue to deceive, the general purchasing public as to the source or origin of the Counterfeit Products, and is likely to deceive the public into believing that Defendants' Counterfeit Products are Plaintiff's Barbie Products or are otherwise associated with, or authorized by, Plaintiff.

73. Defendants' actions have been deliberate and committed with knowledge of Plaintiff's rights and goodwill in the Barbie Marks, as well as with bad faith and the intent to cause confusion, mistake and deception.

federally registered Barbie Marks in violation of §32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

75. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' illegal and infringing actions as alleged herein, Plaintiff has suffered substantial monetary loss and irreparable injury, loss and damage to its business and its valuable rights in and to the Barbie Marks and the goodwill associated therewith in an amount as yet unknown, but to be determined at trial, for which Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law, and unless immediately enjoined, Defendants will continue to cause such substantial and irreparable injury, loss and damage to Plaintiff and the valuable Barbie Marks.

§ 1125(a)/Lanham Act § 43(a)]

77. Plaintiff repleads and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

78. Plaintiff, as the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Barbie Marks has standing to maintain an action for false designation of origin and unfair competition under the Federal Trademark Statute, Lanham Act § 43(a) (15 U.S.C. § 1125).

79. The Barbie Marks are inherently distinctive and/or have acquired distinctiveness.

80. Defendants knowingly and willfully used in commerce products and/or packaging designs that are identical or confusingly or substantially similar to, and constitute reproductions of the Barbie Marks and Barbie Works and affixed, applied and used false designations of origin and false and misleading descriptions and representations on or in connection with the manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or sale of Counterfeit Products with the intent to cause confusion, to cause mistake and to deceive the purchasing public into believing, in error, that Defendants' substandard Counterfeit Products are Barbie Products or related products, and/or that Defendants' Counterfeit Products are authorized, sponsored, approved, endorsed or licensed by Plaintiff and/or that Defendants are affiliated, connected or associated with Plaintiff, thereby creating a likelihood of confusion by consumers as to the source of such Counterfeit Products, and allowing Defendants to capitalize on the goodwill associated with, and the consumer recognition of, the Barbie Marks and Barbie Works, to Defendants' substantial profit in blatant disregard of Plaintiff's rights.

81. By manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale, selling and/or otherwise dealing in the Counterfeit Products that are identical to, confusingly similar to or which constitute colorable imitations of Plaintiff's Barbie Products using marks and/or artwork that is identical and/or confusingly or substantially similar to, or which constitute colorable imitations of the Barbie Marks and Barbie Works, Defendants have traded off the extensive goodwill of Plaintiff and its Barbie Products and did in fact induce, and intend to, and will continue to induce customers to purchase Defendants' Counterfeit Products, thereby directly and unfairly competing with Plaintiff. Such conduct has permitted and will continue to permit Defendants to make substantial sales and profits based on the goodwill and reputation of Plaintiff and its Barbie Marks, which Plaintiff has amassed through its nationwide marketing, advertising, sales and consumer recognition.

82. Defendants knew, or by the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that their adoption and commencement of and continuing use in commerce of marks and artwork that are identical or confusingly or substantially similar to and constitute reproductions of the Barbie Marks and Barbie Works would cause confusion, mistake or deception among purchasers, users and the public.

83. Upon information and belief, Defendants' aforementioned wrongful actions have been knowing, deliberate, willful, intended to cause confusion, to cause mistake and to deceive the purchasing public and with the intent to trade on the goodwill and reputation Plaintiff, its Barbie Products, Barbie Marks and Barbie Works.

85. Based on Defendants' wrongful conduct, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief as well as monetary damages and other remedies as provided by the Lanham Act, including damages that Plaintiff has sustained and will sustain as a result of Defendants' illegal and infringing actions as alleged herein, and all gains, profits and advantages obtained by Defendants as a result thereof, enhanced discretionary damages and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

90. Without permission, Defendants knowingly and intentionally reproduced, copied, and displayed the Barbie Works by manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or selling Infringing Products which bear such Barbie Works, or artwork that is, at a minimum, substantially similar to the Barbie Works.
